This pay day went off quietly. One "Hungryman" concluded to get to work on the row, but the second old timer he ran against hit him on the top of the head so hard it sprang both his ankles and he subsided. Muldoon got his usual rake off out of the generous and stimulating public. The boys all found the jobs ready for them when they went back, and all went merry as a marriage bell.

Globe Times.

The government closed its case last evening in the examination of Joe Bush and Edith Simms, charged with violation of the Edmunds act. The defense will have an inning tomorrow morning in the meantime in default of $1,000 bond they are spending their time in jail. Bush says that his name is not Bush but Schaef.

Our esteemed friend, Charlie Driscoll, while going to his lodging apartment last Monday night, fell over an embankment and was considerably chunked up about the head and neck. Charlie is in his sixties, and carries a bum leg besides, as the result of a mine explosion in which eight or ten men were killed. The accident has given the Arizona legislature in the capacity of member and chief clerk, and is identified with the pioneer days of Arizona.

Some of the old timers who have been in the city for many years, and who have learned that his injuries are not serious. Globe Times.

The city council is composed of financiers. The Journal-Miner editor was called before them yesterday and convinced that he was about ten percent better off than he had been estimating his holdings. He was only one of about a dozen or more who were there by invitation from the council, and as far as observed every one came away convinced that the city council was right and they were wrong. If mining is made in the assessment of every taxpayer, property to the life given the writer there should be no scarcity of revenue next year.

Seven tenths of all the large tracts of demonstrated oil in Kern River, and nearly all in the Sunset and McKittick fields in California, has been tied for the purpose of consolidating into one great company and it is proposed to put the price of oil at sixty cents in the field at once, or $1.00 per barrel delivered in San Francisco. On the strength of this it is said that the Standard Oil Refinery has contracted with the Union Oil company, covering a period of several years, for 800,000 barrels of crude oil at $1.00 delivered in San Francisco. It is understood that L. W. Hellman has consented to take the bonds of the new company to the amount of $5,000,000, and that he will finance the whole proposition, amounting to $75,000,000.

The Indian school land will give its last concert and dance for the season at Iron Springs on Friday evening of this week. The band will return to Phoenix on Saturday to attend the opening of the Indian school there.

An old mountaineer called on the back of a mule and the other day and wanted a job of working around the leecher. Incidentally, of course, he asked what he was to get, to which the foreman replied, "Ninety cents per month." "Oh, no, you don't," says the old timer, "the last feller I worked for told me he'd give me $50 per month and he didn't give me nothing." "I'll work for $90 a month, but I don't want no 'per' in it. That means 'perhaps' you'll get your pay and 'perhaps' you won't." Globe Times.

Sam Dowell went out to do some work on the Lone Hand mining claim about 12 miles northeast of here. The Lone Hand claim runs parallel with the Dark Horse claim, one of the claims that was bought by J. W. Walker by Powell, L. L. White and Gilbert and Rowe. This ledge runs from the Hassayampa in an easterly direction through the mountain to the O'Brien property. Sam has been out some very rich ore from these claims and thinks there is enough left to put him on the "easy" side of "shady" street.

Wienburg News. Sam has been on the shady side of "Easy" street for years. Do not see why he should want to change positions.
